

Help the flood survivors in Pakistan

Millions displaced and without a place to stay, no clean water to drink, no food to eat and no clothes to wear. They lost their homes, their belongings and their livelihood.

They are our Muslim brothers and sisters who survived the most devastating flood which hit Pakistan in 80 years.

This is the time to show our bond of brotherhood. The Prophet (Salla-Allahu 'alaihi wasallam) described the Muslims as one body; if one member becomes sick then the other members of this one body will take care of the sick one:

"The Believers, in their mutual love, mercy and compassion, are like one body: if one organ complained, the rest of the body develops a fever." [Bukhari & Muslim]

Our donations and supplications will contribute to removing their distress, drawing a smile on their faces, eliminating their hunger, clothing them and helping reduce the suffering.

Whatever we do to ease their sufferings on earth will help us at the Day of Judgment. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Umar (Radia-Allahu Anhumu): Allah's Apostle (Salla-Allahu 'alaihi wasallam) said, "A Muslim is a brother of another Muslim, so he should not oppress him, nor should he hand him over to an oppressor. Whoever fulfilled the needs of his brother, Allah will fulfill his needs; whoever brought his (Muslim) brother out of distress, Allah will bring him out of a distress of the Day of Resurrection, and whoever shields a Muslim, Allah will shield him on the Day of Resurrection."

Oh Allah, Our Creator, ease the suffering of the flood victims in Pakistan.

Oh Allah, our Lord, feed the hungry, cloth them, and protect them from diseases

Oh Allah, shield them from the sun, rain and cold

Oh Allah, give them patience and acceptance of your destiny

Oh Allah, we know you are testing their patience and our generosity

Oh Allah, help us on Satan and open our hearts and pockets to those who are suffering

Do not forget to donate at your local Mosque or Islamic charity
